

The Clen-Moore Messenger

JUNE 2025

Dear Church Family,

The month of June and the beginning of summer bring many exciting opportunities and news to share in the life of our church. Here are some of the highlights:

June 8: Pentecost, Confirmation Class & Graduation Sunday

After months of hard work and study, we will welcome three young people into our membership upon completing the confirmation process: Tavian Booker, Ali Devivo, and Addison Lord. During worship, we will also recognize graduates from high school, college, and other institutions. We will continue celebrating with a luncheon in Fellowship Hall after worship. I've invited our friend, the Rev. Rick Vogeley, to preach for this occasion. On that note...

Monthly Preaching with the Rev. Rick Vogeley

With mutual agreement from the Session, Rick, and me, we are excited to announce that Rick will become a monthly fixture in the preaching rotation. Rick has been a tremendous blessing for me personally in many ways, one of which has been his pulpit supply availability when I am away on a Sunday. He will now begin to preach once a month (on average), including Sundays I am not away. This will allow me to give attention to areas of my ministry that sometimes get pushed aside due to the demands of weekly sermon preparation. We are incredibly blessed to welcome him into this role!

Increased Mission Support and Staff Additions

The Session has been discussing and discerning the best use of our financial surplus (we received more money in the past year than our budget and expenses). The overwhelming consensus has been that we use most of it for ministry and mission. This has recently allowed us to bless mission partners above and beyond, including a special gift of $4,000 to the Promise of Life network to rebuild a failed retaining wall in their parking lot. We will seek to use additional funding available to hire part-time staff to enhance and assist in the ministry of our church. We are still sorting out the specifics, so please pray for the work of our Session and Personnel Committee to discern these additions with clarity!

Vacation Bible School – June 16-19

Last but certainly not least, June means it's time for VBS! This year's theme is "Scuba: diving into friendship with God." It will run Monday through Thursday this year in the evenings. We will not have a full-blown kick-off on Sunday, June 15, but we will share our first lesson of the week during the children's message to introduce the theme. Please register your family at www.clenmoore.org or contact Christine Spicuzza at 717-576-3619 or email christinespicuzza@gmail.com. Even if you do not have school-aged children participating in VBS, we always need volunteers to help in various capacities before and during the week. Please talk to Michael or Christine Spicuzza about ways you can serve! We continue to be grateful for the work of ministry God has called us all to do through Clen-Moore Presbyterian Church. I hope and pray that you can join us for one or more of these many special occasions as we shift into the summer months!

Bless and be blessed,
-Michael

Health Tip from the Health Ministry Deacons

“Do car windows filter out enough sunlight to protect our skin?

Car windows don’t fully shield us from the ultraviolet rays, so it is wise to apply sunscreen if you are riding in or driving a car. Windshields block almost all UVB rays and 98 percent of UVA rays. The tempered glass used for side and back windows filters out most UVB rays, but only 21 percent cent of UVA. One study estimated that drivers receive 5 times more UV rays on the left arm and 20 times more on the left side of the face. That leaves people at a greater risk of wrinkles and age spots, and increases the risk for skin cancers.”

Promise of Life
Promise of Life Network's parenting division, New Beginnings, is working with Clen-Moore Presbyterian Church to develop a "Mom's Group". The stated purpose of this group is to create a community for mothers who are feeling isolated while experiencing the trials of parenting little ones. We are hopeful to establish a consistent monthly group to occur the third Tuesday of each month from 10:00am until 11:30am. We are seeking Biblically sound women to provide mentorship and share their "learned experiences" from parenting. Additionally, we are seeking individuals who can assist with childcare during the group. If you are called to come alongside women and children please connect with Savannah Danko or Christina Edwards.
Meetings will be held the third Tuesday of each month from 10:00am—11:30am.

NOT SO YOUTH GROUP ANNUAL
